Subject: OIG Achieves Reaccreditation

The Miami-Dade County Office of the Inspector General (OIG) is proud to announce that this Office was recently reaccredited by the Commission for Florida Law Enforcement Accreditation (CFA). The CFA is an independent, tax-exempt, not-for-profit corporation designated as the accrediting body for Florida police departments, corrections departments, and inspector general offices. Accreditation is the certification by an independent reviewing authority that an entity has met specific requirements and prescribed standards. Reaccreditation demonstrates that the OIG consistently adheres to these standards and that our work product meets or exceeds the highest professional standards promulgated for offices of inspector general.

The OIG was initially accredited by the CFA in July 2010. CFA assessors came back to the OIG in March 2013 to conduct its on-site re-assessment. As with the initial accreditation, the OIG had to satisfy 40 standards specific to the inspector general community. With reaccreditation, our policies and procedures were vetted; our personnel and training practices were examined; our investigative operations were evaluated; and our work products were reviewed to ensure compliance with these standards.

During its regularly held Board meeting on June 27, 2013, the CFA accepted the recommendation of the on-site assessment team and unanimously accorded reaccreditation status on the Miami-Dade County OIG. Our accreditation status is valid through June 2016. We are pleased to be recognized as one of the few OIGs in the state of Florida to have achieved this distinction for excellence, and we are thankful for your continued support.
